The Bee's Tome Magazine Page

Her Husband's Voice Woman's Idea of Humor as Applied

"I met the Boy. Mr. Blibbs on the train ming out," announced the Past Graduate

"Really" exclaimed the Amateur Wife. with a very slight show of interest. "There's a man" the Post Graduate Elgeband continued enthusiastically, . an't remember when I've met a bereve the interested me mure. He spoke with the greatest admiration of you," he added diplomatically. "He said you seemed so original-so resourceful. He said you were first the kind of woman he would love to move in his church.

Husband at the dinner table.

"What for" inquired the Amsteur Wife distinguistrally.

Why, to organize, to manage, to -To coffect. I admit I'd make a fine ollector." interrupted His Wife wisely You see, I leak so childrice and yet ! really know how to manage people beautifully."

"Oh; you do!" Her Rusband answered with a tinge of suspicion.

in was always peculiarly emasperating to him that His Wife should show an intelligent realization of her own qualities

Well, the pastor wants you to become a Husband, disgustedly. "You don't mean to perwase two such rocks. member of the Ladies' Aid society. He may you're thinking seriously of anything when Woof-Woof's ancestors were taking added with a marked accession of inter- affair." est. "I had a perfectly gorgeous idea this

Her Husband raised his eyebrows and shifted uneasily in his chair.

"So many persons have called and so tiently. Woof is nearly 2 years old now and it's the-collarion," she ended foolishly. about time he was introduced to society." suggestion was a joke then-really it was

"That's quite a funny idea," he said, con- position in the circus."" "The possibilities of a coille. The Amsteur Wife laughed uncertainly lectual dreaming or moral sensuousness. write something about it." he added.

least not at that particular moment. "You mean you'll get it in the society got it all planned out! Each coilie that I I thought you knew I was joking. Don't oak. The idoiatry of such idealisms calls invits to Woof-Woof's debut will be ac- you know there's not a dog in Mountain- the mind only to the genuine side of gree. Precedence will be arranged accord- sociate with "

LITTLE SERMON FOR THE WEEK ENDS

Ged's Kingdom.

The phrases, kingdom of God, kingdom of Christ, kingdom of heaven, occur fre quently in the New Yestament, John the Baptist made the desert re-emb with the ery, "Repent, for the kinguem of God is at hand." Duniel graphically describes the rise and fall of many kingdoms, saying that finally the God of heaven would set up a kingdom that would never be destroyed. The religion of Jesus is that kingdom. Plans and laws came from heaven. It was established by the Holy Spirit. Paul, in our text, shows us the nature of that kingdom, declaring. The kingdom of God is not meat and drink. but righteomness and peace and joy in the Holy Ghost."

We discuss the negative side first. "Ment and drink is an expression including all forms of the sensoons or carnal. Paul's murches were troubled with the sensuous in two forms-Jewish ceremonies and rites

(a) True religion is not imposing ceremember of the Ladies and or safe footion as inviting all the dogs monies. The religion is not imposing carasays you'll meet only the very nicest peosays you'll meet only the very nicest peosays you'll meet only the very nicest peosays you'll meet only the very nicest peoin your neighborhood to take part in a importance is attached to exterior rites. It man's disobedience, many were made sintended to a true Christian. Peace is an idimportance is attached to exterior rites. It failty sinculated. Why, there isn't any everybody to eat. I was planning the menu the first town worth considering, everybody to eat. I was planning the menu the first town worth considering, everybody to eat. I was planning the menu the first town worth considering. Not by works of right, laden soul, Joy is the tower, with peals and upon the sinner. Not by works of right, laden soul, Joy is the tower, with peals except Wood-Wood's and maybe one or just before you came in. There will be cummin, but omitted the weightier man sources which we have done, but accord- of bells chiming out, harmonious sounds escept Woof-Woof's and maybe one of sugar spice, then a plate term of the law-judgment, mercy and ling to his mercy he saved us, by the wash-"Have you some out of your mind;" in- streets. This was a vain substitute for neglect the church will fall. On the ground as father They perform duties as drudgesin this house! You don't want to kill all the thoroughbred dogs in town, do you"" "Oh. nonsense" said His Wife impsoriginal idea, and as the party will be held tony, drunkenness and vitest debaucheries count them as gone, that I may win Others have advanced a step higher. They Wood-Wood give a party and invite all his in the afternoon it will be all over by belonged to the exercise of their religious Christ." The Bible speaks of the robe of are at peace. They are sure, there can be The Post Graduate Husband was non-room opened and the Helpful Handmaiden Ghost was needed. They wished to trans- sins, was woven by his agony, bloody Christ. As gold to be coined and get the form the holy supper into a carousal. (Cor. sweat, sufferings and death. The self-suf- sovereign's impression, must be melted in "I'll wait on no dogs" declared Mary, [L3]. Paul reminded them that without ficient guest, not having a "wedding gar- the furnace again and again, until it gets not so bad, but if it was serious no, it beligerently. "If you expect me to feed proper decent discernment, they would ent ment was speechless. a menagerie I give notice; and I'll get a and drink damnation to themselves. True religion is not ideality-not intelparty are decidedly humorous. Maybe I'll She did not want to lose her servant-at Some are "corrupted from the simplicity of the gospel." They form an imaginary "Why. Mary" she expostulated. "Why. Christ, not at all like the real one. A questioned His Wife, eagerly. I've Mary! I had no idea you were so silly! hot house plant over against the mighty companied by a maid bearing his pedi- ville fine enough for Woof-Woof to as- Christ's character. His obedient tenderness, godly devoutness, fidelity, tears, syming to these documents. The collie with For thus does a woman flout her hus- thy. They omit His more musculine qualithe most prize winners in his ancestry band and yield her soul to the "hired girt." Hes. They slightly mention His stern re-(Copyrighted, 1911, by N. Y. Herald Co.) bukes of pride and hypocrisy; His courage in presence of powerful foes. His bloody sweat in the garden; His cry of agony on the cross. This view is out of harmony oid. with the spirit of revelation. It is in line with the tears shed by the daughters of truly, weight of the cross. His command was: were able to reform himself." Weep not for me, but weep for yourselves and your children."

Positive religion is rectitude, repeated the Post Graduate easy to steer the ship (the church) safety free from crookedness, disturbing restless, heart be troubled, neither lef it be afraid." ness and fearful apprehension. "It consists (f.) "Joy in the Holy Ghost." Righteens est, "I had a perfectly gargeous idea this quired the Post Graduate Husband, sternly, true godiness. It was whitewashing a of works none exceeded Paul. By law he "hired servants." Nothing is done spon-

Daily Health Hint

Exposure to cold, exhaustion loss of blood and poor nourishment are among the many causes of neuralsta and safeguards should be employed against them.

The Age of Beform.

"A young man," he said, quaintly and "thinks he is going to reform the Lord always; again I say rejoice." Jerusalem, as He broke down under the world, but an old man would be glad if he

There are almost as many different compet is a message of peace to all those far off, as well as those who are night. (I) Pence with God. The old enemy against God and File rule is stain. Man reconciled is God, who has loved him from everlasting. The peace, passing all understanding, Clows into his soul. "He is our negrawho has made of both one, and has broken down the middle wall of partition." Tranmility to simply impossible, used this reconciliation is affected. No one can have calm beace of soul when God's wrath, like a Democie's sword, hangs over nim: (2) Peace with surpelves. Conscience stops account The passions are under dominion. The little kingdom within, in rebellion before, is subdued. Its strongholds are pulled down. Every thought is brought into exprivity obeying Christ.

We must distinguish between indifference and peace. One is like a quiet murky atmusphere before a storm, the other the baimy air and serene sunshine after the storm, Christ, breathing on His disciples, on the one side, Reentlous habits of heart junilation. The godly man is world give in into you. Let not your Harold Axiell, 319 Bancroft St. ... world give in the other let it be afraid. The man Burrell, 1818 North Twent in righteourness. This is God's gift in ness is forgiveness. This is the lowest con-taneously for love's sake. Their spirit life clous. Then they may reach the jubilant state breaking into exuitation. In this condition "we glory in tribulation also."

of the heritage of them that are sanctified. Too seldom we find joyous believers. Few "Uncle Joe" Cannon, at a dinner in but be filled with the spirit." "That your Washington, praised the wisdom of the joy may me full." It is demonstrative-

First, "Justified by Faith." Babe in

THE BEES JUNIOR BIRTHDAY BOOK

This is the Day We Celebrate

HAROLD MILLER.

Bancroft 1901

March 25, 1911.

Thelma Burrell, 1818 North Twentleth St George A. Best, 2803 North Twenty-fifth St Vera L. Bradford, 2013 Ohio St. pedigrees at all."

There won't be may fight for food."

The temple service was carried on regularly, where isn't any swered positively. There'll be plenty for roughly be made in the menu for many be made single for the temple, solidly swered positively. There'll be plenty for roughly to eat. I was planning the menu for many be made single food.

The temple service was carried on regularly, surgeously, the soul of chiral a stonement, freely bestowed in the menu for many were made single food.

There wen't fight for food."

There won't be made single food.

The temple service is attached to exterior rites. It was summing the fight for food."

The temple service was carried on regularly, surgeously, the soul of chiral a stonement, freely bestowed in the menu food of the temple, solidly was so among the food.

Willie Barbar, 2104 North Twenty-ninth St.

Long was so among the food.

Willie Barbar, 2104 North Twenty-ninth St.

Long was so among the food.

Willie Barbar, 2104 North Twenty-ninth St.

Long was so among the food.

Willie Barbar, 2104 North Twenty-ninth St.

Long was so among the food.

Willie Barbar, 2104 North Twenty-ninth St.

Long was so among the food.

Willie Barbar, 2104 North Twenty-ninth St.

Long was so among the food.

Willie Barbar, 2104 North Twenty-ninth St.

Long was so among the food.

Willie Barbar, 2104 North Twenty-ninth St.

Long was so among the food.

Willie Barbar, 2104 North Twenty-ninth St.

Long was so among the food.

Willie Barbar, 2104 North Twenty-ninth St.

Long was so among the food.

Willie Barbar, 2104 North Twenty-ninth St.

Long was so among the food.

Willie Barbar, 2104 North Twenty-ninth St.

Long was so among the food.

Willie Barbar, 210 Harry Caldwell, 1008 Farnam St. Mary Chuin, 1911 Pacific St. Leavenworth 1964 two other collies. You know very well the only reat blue blood is in horse shows of liver, then beef stew and puppy blocuits faith. They cleaned the outside of cup ing of regeneration and reviewing of the and platter. Exterior and platter. Ex estentatiously, sounding a trumpet on the Through it the church must stand. By its bondage. They have God as master-not William L. Emerich, 1122 South Twenty-eighth St., Park collies from fighting and Mary will serve of those things which are done by them in covered. So it was with the prodigat. They have the spirit of adoption, crying Lawrence Homan, 4521 North Thirty-minth St. Monmouth Park . . 1501 Emil Kavan, 2709 South Nineteenth St. Castellar 1397 Haroid Miller, 920 North Twenty-sixth St. Webster 1904 Unstrung upon the willows, the harp of Curtis Mott, 1002 South Forty-eighth St Beals 1910 pressed down and running over. "Joy in Carl J. Peterson, Thirty-fourth St and Fowler Age. Monmouth Park . 1897 Christ. Second. Peace, grown into caim George Stodoina, 2409 South Twenty-ninth St. Im. Conception 1965 John Stachurski, 2721 South Twenty-third St. Im. Conception 1899 Axtell Stuart, 316 Bancroft St. Bancroft 1899 Ruby Schneider, 3824 North Thirty-eighth St. Central Park 1897 Philip H. Weinert, 3043 Evans St. Druid Hill 1903

Jane Gray, Priestess of Sunshine meet it is Jane Gray," said Mrs. Ellis, as " 'And, thank the Lord, you have the she put down her sleeves and washed her strength to do it. You are one of the hands at the sink. "It is better than see- richest women I know. Mrs. Ellia. With ing the doctor any time, if the soul needs Tom for a husband and three bright, medicine. Here I was yesterday so down- healthy, growing buys, you are really to up; everything I did was a task, and my "I had not looked at it in that light be-solrits were all out of sorts." "I had not looked at it in that light be-rice, or anything of that sort. She saved Mrs. Hillis, and you will find you would not

"I guess she saw by my eyes that I had " 'I am sure of that,' I cried, 'and you

"Oh, Mollie," she said, T'm so glad to "Then look for the silver lining: it is been crying, but she took no more notice of must not think me ungrateful, but someit than if my face had been wreathed in times the sun nides staelf a bit behind the see you. Tou will know how glad when I sure to be there. There was no cloud ever tell you I walked all the way over from so dense that it did not eventually yield

"Gray's Ferry is seven miles away, and up to discouragement, for it is always bet-

"Yes, I did," she laughed, laying aside the wraps and taking up the dish towel. no one can estimate her worth. All child-out of work at home, when something creatures, and I thank him for permitting seemed to tell me I would find some here. her to have crossed my pathway." -- dko-

'All I need is plenty to do and I'm ren love her; dumb animals follow her. She happy, she continued. 'I had just about would not hurt the feeling of God's lowest

You dear little woman, I cried, smil- "Well, those kind words saved me, and

Then Jane came in like a bit of sun- husband living, and that our boys were beyond compare.

ter farther on."

"If ever there was a person good to fairly piles up in this house.

me by kind words and friendly interest, exchange lots with anyone, hearted that I scarcely knew how to brace be envised, dear."

shine and saved me from myeeif.

Gray's Ferry for that very purpose.

a rough, hilly road at that.

ing in spits of myseif.

'She didn't go about it by giving me ad-

Undoing of Mr. Uplift

If I thought there was going to be any Father, "I naturally deplore any necessity that to learn what war is like," announces from when my country calls." Mr. Uplifft to his son, at the same time "If some of these jingy countries can't swelling out his chest as if it were al- think of anything else to scrap about." Son ready govered with gold medals and bruss believes, "they'll pick a fight about the "Can't you take General Sherman's word young Mr. Upilift, who isn't feeling like Father. even a second cousin to a patriot.

knowledges Father. "but nevertheless I should like to experience the thrills of

"It's the same kind of foolish dope that feads us yaps to plunge into matrimony, starely observes Son. "I notice that when a real war does break out it's mostly the married men that beat it for the front. 1 suppose they like a little variety in the serapping,"

"At the same time there is something magnificent about war," continues Father. whose natriotism almost makes him forget he is an officer in good standing in a peace

That's the way it sometimes looks to a man in Broadway." Son admits "But, be. difficulties, I suppose," Father admits. Here me, your little Willie would rather be sitting on his neck in a Morris chair in a out of the way of those ding-ding builden." "Of course," mused Father, "there are the the row" he demands. many real perits and privations connected. "I think myself." Father says, "that it WITH M FOLL WAY.

ane automobiles, the hatpins in the subway a country that goes to war." and the roller skating kids." Son declares. 'ought to be able to give the merry ha-na Son. "Wh. should us brave men go to war bunch of bean-sheeting rebes. War when the country is filled with suffragettes that can eidestep the perils of a great the scrapping while we hold down our jobs

Remarks of Kids

Nine-year-old Blair had the nightmare and his mother, rushing to his assistance. followed the necessary southing process by the inevitable wunder as to what had dis-

THE WHAT'S The pin 4 and at support

Was worry over my home studies. Teacher treased him.

"Let the Women Go to War," Argued by Father vs. Son.

BELLIGERENTLY.

for war, but I am ever ready to go to the best way to ensure perce." "It's an age-old axiom that we must preby it?" somewhat tartly interrogated pare for war in times of peace," reminds

"That's another one of those chestnuts "I know what that distinguished soldier that ought to be canned." advises Son. is repoted to have said about war," ac- "My notion of no way to prepare for war is to spend a lot of perfectly good coin on drilling a bunch of tin soldiers." "I think military organizations teach oung men to love their country," permists patriotic Father.

"I love my own, my native land," warbles Son, "but I can't see any money in guing down to mix it up with a bunch of greasers for thirteen bucks per month. t's a beautiful stunt to be a soldier boy and fight for the Stars and Stripes, but I like to know what I'm fighting about I want to get good and mad before I take off my coat and roll up my sleeves."

Well, most wars arise from diplomatic "These diplomatic guys who wear fuit sets of windbrakes on their faces and order Hartem flat than to be reasting a slab of a war like one of us hired men would order sait dog over a mage brush fire way down a glass of book beer get my goat," rages to Mexico, at the same time trying to keep | Son. "Why don't they get together and play a game of checkers or pinochle to set-is better to avoid war whenever possible "Any chap that can dodge the Fifth ave- Think of what it means to the women of "That's a good point. Pop!" exclaims bught to seem like a vacation to the boy just dying for a fight? Let the skirts do tad Inormic

'Being an advocate of peace," resumes (Copyrighted, 19tt, by N. T. Herald Co.)

C. Paliting the party of the

Some Silhouettes of the Sidewalk BY BORBIE BABBLE

That's right, I sighed. The work kane Spokesman-Review.

The Artist Whistler.

The clear tone from his whistle floats High over Broadway's noise, Awaking longings in the throats Of envious little boys.

The peddler seils 'em here and there And passes on his way, And still his high notes pierce the air, So shrill, though far away.

What do you call 'em." Joinnie asks A man who purchased one. "A penny whistle?" "No, they cost A nickel each, my son!" "I think they call 'em fluto-phones." Speaks up the Broadway cop. "Cail 'em a nuisance," one man greans, "And make the whistist stop."

The high brow post losters past On inspiration bent; His giance toward the ground is cast, With franky he is rent. "Hark! Hark!" he asks,

Are these from heaven that fail?" "What, that?" says naughty Johnnie Jones. "The whistler gent-that's ail!"

" Six down and count your blessings.

to the sun's rays. It is never wise to give made me see things as they really were

The artist Whistier, do you mean?" The carer post criss. 'Guess be's an artist' (See, you're green!" Says Johnnie in surprise. "Thus," cries the poet, "thus he sings,

From beavenly heights impeared. Oh, happy painter! Httl: he brings Joy to a sordid world!" Johnnie turns homoward-he is wise.

"I wouldn't buy." says he. Like all them other many guys. No. wir you can't fool ma. When they get home and try, may, They'll find they got a frost, Dere aint no man can make it play, 'Cept his front teeth in lost!" Convenience and by No X Market Con child asked of another. It means having a lovely time talking when you're a grown-up and talking back sharp, but it doesn't seem to. whom you're small." Well," said the ciera to the saucy new on schedule time.

affice boy, "I think you now understand If they can't be stars, some people inyadr duties thoroughly. You come on duty sist upon being clouds, leave at haif past 2 and we allow thirty minutes for lunch."

T've stever learned to out minutes, boss," Was the grinning answer, "but if you'll make it or piece or pie an' or glass or milk things if he carves without getting a spot I'll take de job!"

Hello, Jamesey' How's the trade."

The embryonic artima thus hatled winked

Gentle Cynicisms

It stands to reason that the woman who ooks well in a hobble skirt would look twice as well in anything else. It's a good plan to let well enough alone, if you know when to do it. namma," forestalled the wise child. "It Many a man doesn't leave his wife much when he dies because he left her so much when he was alive.

told in today that we're to have examinatues on Friday, and I just dreamed I didn't When a man really thinks there is such thing as a painless dentist you can fool him with any old thing.

What's 'discussion' mean?' one anxious. Heaven won't be nearly exclusive enough to suit some people. Boing ground down should make a man Some men are so methodical that they even expect their opportunities to travel

Foresight, as a rule, only comes to a man when he is so old he has nothing to look forward. A woman can forutto a husband many un the table chift. Too many 6ye-openers are good for the optician.

Truth may win in the long run, by to sample Dandy! Bown at it six mont's. The trouble with marriage is that penas I'm afther goin' on strike for de t'ird pie never begin to think seriously about is till it is two late.-Philadelphia Ledger